 - We encourage you to submit your ideas.
 - Submitting a suggestion does not guarantee implementation.
- C. Submit maintenance requests to the resort office.

SOLICITING OR PEDDLING

- A. Soliciting and peddling is not permitted in the resort.

BUSINESS

- A. Illegal “businesses”, such as prostitution, escorts, drug dealers, etc., are strictly prohibited and will be immediately reported to the authorities.

OCCUPANCY

- A. Any person applying for admittance as a resident or tenant of the resort must fill out an application and be interviewed by resort management. All prospective residents and tenants and guests must read and sign a form stating that they understand and will abide by The Rules & Regulations.
 - a. All renters in the resort, regardless if they do not sign the Rules & Regulations are still bound by them and will be held responsible and accountable for following them.
- B. Prospective residents or tenants of the resort must be approved by resort management based upon: (1) completion of an application; (2) credit, background, reference and criminal history check; and (3) an interview of all persons planning to occupy the park model, RV or apartment. Such written approval will not be unreasonably withheld; however, resort management does reserve the right to refuse admission to the resort to any person(s) deemed not suitable in its sole discretion. Any misrepresentations, whether written or oral, made by an applicant, as to the number, age, or identity of persons residing in the home, about pets, personal background, past landlords, or made to induce resort management to admit the prospective resident(s) or tenant(s) are deemed material, fraudulent and a conclusive breach of the application and shall void the approval of the resident(s) tenant(s) or guest(s).

- C. If a conclusive breach of the application is discovered after the applicant has become a resident or tenant, it is grounds for immediate eviction and the duplicitous party(ies) is responsible for all costs associated to enforce their eviction.
- D. Infractions of these rules are considered grounds for eviction.
- E. No one other than those named on the title of the park model or RV shall be allowed to reside on a lot without prior written consent from resort management.
- F. The purchase of a park model or RV by someone who has not obtained written consent from resort management shall not constitute permission or right for the purchaser(s) to reside within the resort.
 - a. A completed and approved application and a transfer fee of $500.00 (for park models and RVs already in the resort) must be received by resort management prior to the:
 - i. arrival of the resident's park model or RV
 - ii. transfer of title when the park model or RV is already in the resort
 - iii. taking possession of an apartment by a tenant(s)
 - b. Resort management reserves the right to terminate the residency or potential residency of anyone who fails to comply with these requirements.
- G. A copy of the current and legal title must be submitted to the office within thirty (30) days of approved residency and kept on file in the office for the duration of the title's legal status.
- H. Residents must submit a copy of their current and valid insurance and registration to resort management. As the insurance and registration policies are renewed, new copies must be submitted and filed in the office.

- I. No one is permitted to climb the trees, play in the streets or on the lots of other residents. No one is to pass through another lot, unless permitted by lot renter. Residents shall be held responsible for their own actions and the actions of their visitors who violate these rules, and for any damages caused by such persons or actions.

LOT CARE

- A. Lot and park model improvements are encouraged, but must be pre-approved by Resort Management, particularly if digging or planting is involved.
 - a. Any improvements done to the property (land) must be left or returned to their original condition before leaving (e.g.: pavers must be left or if removed, grass must be replaced and in good condition).
- B. All work done to your park model or RV must be done by vendors who are bonded, insured. They must submit their COI, W-9, vehicle insurance and Worker's Compensation Waiver (if needed) to the office prior to commencing any work.
 - a. Residents/Guests need to alert resort management prior to the vendor arriving and to receive parking instructions for the vendor's vehicles.
 - b. Friends and family who do not meet the above criteria are not allowed to perform any work in the resort.
- C. It is the resident's responsibility to ensure their lot and park model/permanently placed RV and shed are properly maintained by resort standards and comply with all municipal, county and state housing and health codes.
- D. Resort standards mandate the yard and unit be in good repair and aesthetically pleasing. The lawn must be mowed, edged and weeded. The outside of the unit must be clean and in good repair, and the yard must be free of equipment, boxes, cans, bottles and debris of any matter. You will receive a notice from resort management if you do not comply with these mandates. Continuing to not adhere to said mandates will provide resort management with the opportunity, but not the obligation, to have the necessary work performed and shall have the right to fine the resident for materials, equipment, chemicals, labor or as a penalty.

a. Fines must be paid immediately and if not, will be collected with the monthly rent (and treated as monthly rent).

- E. Residents that will be absent from the resort must secure all exterior belongings to avoid possible damage to other residences and the resort due to weather or any Act of God.
- F. The resident, tenant or guest is responsible for any damage their (or their visitor's) belongings cause.
- G. Residents who will be away from the resort longer than a week should notify resort management so their lot can be put on the resort's mow list.
- H. The resident is responsible for all fines imposed by any governmental agency for failure to comply with their codes. If said fines are imposed to the resort due to noncompliance of a resident, the resident shall immediately reimburse the resort for the fine.
- I. Should the resident's park model or permanently placed RV be destroyed by fire, weather, Act of God, or any other means, resident must remove the salvage from the lot within fifteen (15) days of the event, unless approved by resort management.
- J. Patios and the un-skirted space under the RV is not to be used for storage.
- K. Units that are for sale can put one (1) standard sized sign in their front window.

MOWING

- A. If you are unable to care for your lot due to age, health or being away from your lot, resort management will maintain it for you. Be sure to alert the office, so you can be put on the mow list.
 - 1. If you do not put yourself on the mow list, you may receive fines due to lack of lawncare.
 - 2. Due to conflicts, Southern Ducks RV Resort will only mow lots for residents while they are away. If you want your lot weeded or sprayed, you will need to find a management approved vendor.
- B. If your lot is disheveled when the maintenance crew is mowing, they will bring your lot up to standard and charge you for their services ($25.00 for mowing, $10.00 for weed eating and $5.00 for spraying weed killer).
- C. Mowing fees are due immediately. If you do not pay, they will be added to your monthly rent and treated as monthly rent.
- D. Fees are incurred each instance, so you may acquire multiple of the same fine.
- E. Lots that do not have grass are still responsible for maintaining any weeds.

SALE AND/OR REMOVAL OF PARK MODEL

- F. All homes in the resort must be built in accordance with the Park Model Construction and Safety Act of 1974 ("the HUD code"). Homes built prior to 1976 which may not be in accordance with the HUD code may be "grandfathered" in by written agreement with resort management.

1. Notice to the Resort Management. A resident intending to sell their park model shall give resort management notice of such intention and the name and address of any proposed purchaser, the purchase terms, and any additional information concerning the proposed purchaser. Resident shall direct the proposed purchaser to resort management for an application. Within thirty days of purchase, the purchaser shall provide resort management with true copies of the legal title, insurance and registration, all showing in the name of the purchaser.
2. Transfer Fee. There is a transfer fee for every park model or RV sold on the community's property. The seller must pay the resort a minimum of $500.00 for each transfer made on the resort's property within two (2) days of the sale. If the seller fails to pay the transfer fee, the resort will not recognize the sale and the seller will be subject to an immediate eviction, where the seller is responsible and legally bound to pay all eviction costs incurred by the resort.
3. Application Form. Resort management is vested with the authority to mandate an application that requires specific personal, social, financial and other data relating to the proposed purchaser/prospective resident in order for the resort to responsibly investigate the proposed purchaser/prospective resident.
4. Failure to Obtain Approval of Park Management. Any person who purchases a park model or permanently placed RV that is located in the resort, but does not obtain approval from the resort management to become a resident, prior to purchase of the home, shall be subject to immediate eviction at their expense.
5. Disapproval by the Resort Owner. In accordance with applicable state and federal laws, resort management may disapprove the prospective resident if the prospective resident does not qualify to be a resident by giving notice to the prospective resident of the disapproval. If the resort management shall disapprove a proposed purchaser, such disapproval shall be grounds for eviction in the event such proposed purchaser has taken possession of the respective lot. In the event of disapproval, the resort management may pursue all remedies available at law or in equity.

- G. Resort management shall have the right to inspect the park model/RV prior to approving a proposed purchaser. Homes must meet all local code requirements, including electrical and plumbing, but not limited thereto. Prior to written approval of the purchaser, the seller and the purchaser must provide written assurance to resort management that any repairs or changes to the home will be made as necessary to bring the home into compliance with Resort rules as set forth in these Rules and Regulations. Resort management has the right to deny approval of the proposed purchaser if such work is not done.
- H. Homeowners may display one standard sized for sale sign in their front window.
- I. The resort management requires that any park model or RV not meeting the resort's established rules, as required by these rules, or any park model or RV which is improperly maintained, be upgraded to improve the quality and appearance of the park model or RV. Failure to meet the resort's requirements shall be a violation of these Rules.
- J. In the event Homeowner intends to move her/his RV or park model from the resort, she/he/they must give written notice to resort management of that intent at least thirty (30) days prior to the moving date. Such move must be made during office hours, Monday – Friday, so resort management may have an inspector present. Only transporters of park models, properly authorized by governing authorities, are permitted to move homes into or out of the Resort.

Such transporters must provide resort management with a security deposit of $500.00 and a certificate of general liability insurance in an amount of not less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) to ensure against personal injury and damage to property. Written permission from resort management is required prior to any move of a park model either into or out of the Resort. All current charges must be paid in full at the resort office before the home is moved from the resort. Unused deposit funds will be returned to the depositor after the date of removal.

- K. Resort management requires that each resident comply with the requirements of all governmental agencies including, but not limited to, HUD, the department of motor vehicles or transportation, the state and the county in which the resort is located.

SETUP: NEW, REALES AND RENTALS

- A. The location and positioning of a non-resort owned home being placed on a lot will be carried out under the direction of resort management. The style and quality, size and type of all proposed additions or other improvements to resident's home or lot will be subject to resort management's prior written approval and will be based on factors such as the size, location, and the proposed location of equipment, additions or other improvements in relationship to other lots in the community.
- B. Resort management has installed a working smoke alarm(s), carbon monoxide alarms and a fire extinguisher in each home rented to tenant(s) as required by law. Tenant(s) must not disconnect or intentionally damage any alarm or remove the battery without immediately replacing it with a working battery. Tenant(s) shall not remove the fire extinguisher and agrees to check it monthly for a full charge. Tenant(s) agrees to monthly test the alarms to ensure they are functioning properly and to replace the batteries as often as may be necessary, but in any event at least every six (6) months. If tenant(s) has reason to believe that any alarm or other safety device is not operating properly, tenant(s) agrees to immediately notify resort management.

- C. Responsibility for compliance with applicable zoning or code provisions shall be that of the resident(s). Only new homes (never previously occupied) and used homes which have been approved in advance by resort management as acceptable for location within the resort will be allowed in the resort. A plot plan showing the location of the home, accessory buildings and any improvements existing and proposed to the home or lot shall be submitted to the resort management. Written approval from the resort management is required prior to the commencement of any work. All persons involved with the move in and set up of the home must have adequate general liability and worker's compensation insurance. All liability associated with the move in shall be the responsibility of the homeowner.
- D. Park models and permanently placed RVs must be placed in a uniform manner, properly blocked, set and all utilities connected in accordance with the applicable local, city or county code and/or regulations and with resort management's specifications. Park models and permanently placed RVs must be anchored immediately, as required by governmental regulations.
- 1) No fences are permitted except those installed by the resort or otherwise expressly consented to by resort management.
 - 2) Window coverings visible from the street shall be limited to blinds, shutters, drapes, curtains or similar standard window treatments. Bed sheets, mattresses, blankets or the like shall not be used as a window covering or shade device.

- 3) No air conditioning unit shall be located in the front window of the park model or front wall, or any wall facing the street. Central air conditioning must be installed in park models coming into the resort.
 - 4) No aluminum foil, blankets or the like shall be placed in any window in the park model while being inhabited. Aluminum panels are permitted while the unit is closed during times of vacancy.
- E. All of the materials utilized in connection with the erection and completion of the resort shall be of a quality type, style, color and pattern approved in advance by resort management. Resort management shall have approval rights over the manner of installation or attachment of the home and of any accessory structures, and all installation and construction shall be consistent and compatible with other homes in the resort. All installations shall comply with federal and state and local laws, codes and regulations, and shall comply with these rules.
 - F. Subleasing and renting of a park model or permanently placed RV is not permitted by anyone within the resort, other than the resort itself. The name(s) on the legal title must match the person(s) residing in the park model or permanently placed RV.
 - G. Permanently located trailers shall have properly installed tie downs and skirting that meet the resort management's standards and comply with all regulatory requirements.
 - H. Additions, such as patio roofs, screened porches and utility rooms must have resort management approval and require a Polk County Building Permit.

INSURANCE AND REGISTRATION

- A. The resort does not provide insurance for any park model, RV or vehicle that resides on a lot for usage or storage. All park models, RVs and vehicles must have a valid insurance policy and registration prior to entering the resort and while it is located in the resort.
- B. Any person who owns a park model or RV in the resort must provide a copy of their current and valid insurance policy, title and registration to resort management. New copies must be filed in the office as they are legally renewed.

DEFAULT AND EVICTION

- A. Any violation of these rules shall, at the resort management's option, be grounds to evict the violator(s) from the resort.
- B. The violator(s) is responsible for all fees and costs, legal and otherwise, incurred by the resort during and after the eviction process.
- C. Southern Ducks RV Resort is not responsible for any damage to any items while removing them from the property.

SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS

- A. All deviations from these rules can only come from resort management.
